SUGGESTIONS AND COMPLAINTS

If your cabin runs out of hot water or has plumbing problems, please tell the first member of the staff you see so that the problem can be corrected immediately.

Any other problems should be discussed with Mr. Galey who will give them his full and immediate attention.

We are always looking for ways to make your stay more enjoyable, and will welcome any suggestions you may have.

RIDING

What to wear: Be Comfortable, but: your shoes or boots must have a heel to keep your foot from slipping through the stirrup; you should protect your skin from our high altitude sun, and scratches in the timber; always take some form of rain gear.

Starting Out: Go to the barn and ask for the Head Wrangler - he will be expecting you. Tell him about your riding experience and he will assign you a suitable horse. If you like it, it will be yours for your stay with us. Don't hesitate to ask for instruction or advice.

Riding: Whenever you wish to ride and/or take a picnic lunch, sign up on the board in the dining room the night before or at breakfast - your horse will be ready for you. You may ride anytime you wish between 9 and 5 except Sunday afternoon. If you wish to ride outside those hours, please consult our Head Wrangler so your horse can be given extra feed. We have enough wranglers so you may ride when, where and with whom you choose.

Kid's Rides: Our Kid Wranglers supervise the children's rides with particular emphasis on safety, instruction and fun. Picnics, gymkana practice and lots of other special riding activities. Extra care and attention are given to very young or insecure children.

Lessons: Our Head Wrangler will be pleased to arrange for riding lessons for you or your family.

SAFETY TIPS

You and your children will be safe and happy on the ranch if you will observe the following suggestions:

Ponds and Lakes: The water is cold and cramps are possible. Please do not swim alone or let children swim without adult supervision.

Off Limits: The barn, kitchen and linen room are all strictly off limits. You could be hurt or cause an accident.

Ranch Pets: All of the animals on the ranch are gentle and friendly (but watch out for the chickens and geese). Accidents happen only if they are frightened or teased. A slow gentle approach goes a long way to preventing problems.

Cars: The parking area is located outside the fence separating the Main Cabin area from the driveway. Cars are permitted within the cabin area ONLY for loading and unloading upon arrival and departure.

Speed Limit: Please drive as if your youngest child or favorite pet could pop out onto the road in front of you any second. We want your vacation to end happily.

For Safety, Courtesy, and how to look Experienced the first Time Out, here's STRUTHERS BURT'S advice from DIARY OF A DUDE-WRANGLER, 1925.

Do Not ride off while someone else is in a vulnerable position, like Mounting or Dismounting, Opening or Shutting a gate.

Let your horse drink whenever he wants to. But Do Not Let Him Eat On The Trail. Nothing spoils a horse quicker then this.

Check your cinch every time you mount your horse.

Tuck your bottom under, and sit back, especially you ladies. Men do that automatically.

A fast walk is not a natural gait. Use your heels.

Only in Western Novels do people gallop endlessly over the Prairies.... Use a slow trot and fast walk - save your loping for the cool parts of the day. Bringing a horse back wet is a sure sign of a poor rider.

Be riding all the time. If you're absent-minded while riding someday your horse will make a fool out of you, or you will make a fool out of him.

Never allow your horse to run to the barn unless you have a hankering to hang yourself on the chinning bar just inside the door.

And Unless you have a seriously considered desire for hoofprints embossed upon your person, do not walk up behind a horse. Even the gentlest can kick if startled.
